Your membership in the SUPERMARKET SAVVY® Information & Resource Service comes with legal permission to make copies of some parts of each newsletter issue.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING TERMS BEFORE MAKING ANY COPIES:

At SUPERMARKET SAVVY® we believe that the SUPERMARKET SAVVY® Information & Resource Service is to be used, not just read. Accordingly, the subscriber (from here on referred to as “you”) is granted permission to copy: 1) the copy-ready handout(s) and/or Comparison Chart(s) that comes with each issue of the SUPERMARKET SAVVY® Newsletter, and 2) two product reviews, feature article, and/or FYIs (from here referred to as “these materials”) from each issue of the SUPERMREKT SAVVY® Newsletter—but only if you do so in the manner stipulated below.

- You may make copies of these materials for the purpose of client education of the lay public; i.e., your patients, clients, employees, or people that participate in your professional programs.
- Unless special permission has been granted, you are prohibited from reproducing these materials for commercial or marketing uses (for example, supermarket circulars, health fairs, or in a newsletter that is part of an organization’s marketing presence).
- You have “one-level permission” and “one-site permission” to make copies of these materials. “One-level permission” means that you have permission to make copies for the lay clients that you deal with directly, but your clients do not have permission to make copies of these materials. “One-site permission” means that you have permission to make copies for the clients at your site only. So, for example, the chief dietitian at the home office of a large HMO does not have permission to make copies of these materials for each of the HMO sites around the country. To make copies for more than one site, special distribution rights may be purchased. Currently, you can add-on sites and colleagues to your subscription for just $25.
- Reproduction and distribution of these materials is permitted to you only so long as the copies you make are reprinted as a product or in a publication that is not for sale.
- Reproduction and distribution of these materials is permitted to you only so long as the SUPERMARKET SAVVY® copyright and other notices appear at the bottom of every page. For example: ©2008 Linda McDonald Associates, Inc. Not for sale by anyone other than Linda McDonald Associates, Inc., dba SUPERMARKET SAVVY®, Houston, TX, 713-978-6960. Note: The date of the copyright will change over time.
- Electronic transmission of these materials is strictly prohibited unless you purchase special reproduction rights. If you would like to post SUPERMARKET SAVVY information on your web site, please call for permission and to discuss details.

Note: Linda McDonald Associates, Inc. makes these materials available to you and for your use for informational purposes only and assumes no responsibility for that use. Neither Linda McDonald Associates Inc. nor SUPERMARKET SAVVY shall have any liability whatsoever for any use of these materials.

If you have any questions about what copyright permission or would like to discuss expanded copyright permission, please call SUPERMARKET SAVVY® at 1-888-577-2889 or 713-978-6960.
